WIESENHOF International GmbH

A MEMBER OF PHW GROUP

WIESENHOF International (WHI) is a member of PHW Group with its headquarters in Lower Saxony, Germany. WHI takes great pride in being part of a vertical poultry integration: the PHW Group, a family-owned enterprise in its 3rd generation and well known to consumers under the German poultry core brand WIESENHOF. The board members are CEO Peter Wesjohann, followed by Doris Wesjohann, Markus Wesjohann and completed by Dr. Heinrich Droege and Marcus Keitzer. Board advisor is Paul-Heinz Wesjohann, who's initials form the name of the group: PHW. 35 associated companies, approx. 10,000 employees and more than 1,000 farmers in Germany and across Europe build the foundation for trust and partnership. Within PHW Group, WHI is the trusted international b2b sales organisation with its core business to market poultry products such as high-quality fresh, chilled and deep frozen chicken, turkey and duck specialties in particular. The product range can be tailored to customer-specific wishes and needs. WHI ensures highest food standards and food safety due to constant monitoring, two quality traits in which our clients trust, as well as full traceability – from farm to fork – for all products. The associated production facilities, which have a significant influence on the quality of all products, use the latest technology to produce according to highest food standards and to the fullest customer satisfaction. The aim is to continuously improve the services offered by WHI in the sense of further increasing customer satisfaction.

WHI capabilities

- 1 | highly qualified, well and professionally educated, multilingual team
- 2 | aware of international markets and their requirements
